

Rugby Police Bowls Club Presentation 2023: Rosemarie Geden, Laura Heaton, Chris Richards

At their recent A.G.M. Rugby Police Bowls Club, presented a cheque for £1650 to Laura Heaton, who was representing 'Myton Hospice Care at Home', which provides palliative care to patients in their own home environment.

Rugby Police B.C. have, for many years, collected monies for local charities to benefit the local community and their membership.

Each year they try to support a charity which is close to one or more of their members hearts. This year Myton was chosen as long serving member Chris Richards had recently lost a dear friend, who had received the services of The Myton Hospices in his own home, with his friend's family finding invaluable comfort in the support they received, at a very difficult time.

Laura, a Partnership Fund Raiser for Myton said "Thank you so much to the Rugby Police Bowls Club for such a generous donation to our 'Myton at Home' service. This money will ensure that we can continue to deliver the best care to our patients living with a life limiting illness and their loved ones within the comfort of their own home, completely free of charge across Warwickshire."

R.P.B.C.'s Secretary Rosemarie Geden said, "Myton is a charity, which is dear to me and many of our members, with many past players and their relatives having received Myton's care, either from the 'Care at Home team' or in their hospices. We are pleased once again to be able to support a wonderful charity and the people of the local communities where we play our bowls. I would like to thank all our members and our tourists who have supported the charity throughout the year".
