

RUGBY POLICE B.C.
OCTOBER 2023
THE AFTERNOON TEA
ENTERTAINERS

After three years of not being able to hold a Club Social Event, it was decided to hold, for members, partners and guests an end of Season Afternoon Tea. Thirty-four people attended and with a choice of tea, coffee or alcohol, being available, it was soon very busy. All were invited to take part in a quiz and after a lovely freshly prepared buffet, the assembled group were royally entertained by fellow members. Led by Elaine & Ian Box and accompanied on the ukulele by Ray Dawson, the room was treated to a monologue by Ian, recounting Albert's adventures at the zoo, followed by a number of classic songs, with everyone participating. The entertainment was rounded off by James Laidlaw who gave his own rendition of 'Donald where's your trusers,' including a verse about bowls and the club. Once again, we proved what a talented group of people the club have playing for them, at least when it comes to entertainment! A lovely afternoon was completed by then being able to enjoy homemade cakes, produced by several of the 'bakers' amongst us.
